Fremont House

Boston

August 14. 1873

My dear Mr Garrison,

I find that I am expected at Plymouth tomorrow, and that I shall have a little early. Can you come in on Saturday? If so I need not stay over Sunday, but if you cannot, I must stay over.

Yours truly

I shall become [illegible]
from her. Perhaps you will do me the favour of writing a line here to let me know whether I may expect you.

Believe me [illegible]

[illegible]

Rev. William James

of Bristol, England

W. Lloyd Garrison, Esq
